2nd November 1935]

Mr. V. T. Arasu:—" May I know them?"

The Hon. Sir K. V. Reddi Nayudu:—" Each case is considered on its merits; the Collector has recommended the case; there are various other reasons."

Sriman M. G. Patnaik Mahasayo:—" What is the special reason in the case of the Vizagapatam Public Prosecutor?"

Mr. G. R. Premayya:—" May I know why the gentleman at Madura has been appointed for the sixth time?"

The Hon. Sir K. V. Reddi Nayudu:—" That was because there were some suits in his hands at the time, concerning the Periyar Irrigation scheme; they were very important cases and the Collector recommended that it would be better if they should be in his hands until the cases were disposed of."

Mr. T. C. Srinivasa Ayyangar:—" If a man has done the work of the Public Prosecutor and Government Pleader for a number of years, does it disqualify him from continuing to be in the same appointment after the third term?"

The Hon. Sir K. V. Reddi Nayudu:—" There is nothing disqualifying; the policy of the Government is to give opportunities for others."

Sriman M. G. Patnaik Mahasayo:—" What about the Vizagapatam Public Prosecutor? Why is he continued?"

The Hon. Sir K. V. Reddi Nayudu:—" It is said that he is a particularly good man and that it is not possible to get an equally good man."

Sale of quinine through post offices.

* 399 Q.—Mr. M. B. Rangaswami Reddi: Will the Hon. the Law Member be pleased to state—

(a) whether it is a fact that the sale of quinine in post offices has been stopped;

(b) whether the Government propose to renew the practice of selling quinine in post offices;

(c) whether there is any difference in prices in the supply of quinine to the Government hospitals and to the rural dispensaries, and if so, the difference of the price per pound; and

(d) whether the quinine factory is seasonal or perennial—if seasonal, for how many months in a year?

A.—(a) No.

(b) Does not arise.

(c) No.

(d) It is a perennial factory.
